

In recognition of Women's History Month, the Rochester Chess Center presents:

The Fifth Annual Women's History Month Invitational Saturday, March 27, 2010

This is our fifth annual all-female chess tournament. It is being staged to celebrate the women who have opened doors in this male-dominated sport and to encourage all those who follow in their footsteps in any field to support and mentor other women. To help promote this role-modeling, this tournament is open to females of all ages.

Who: Open to all girls and women ONLY
Sections: K-4, K-12, and adult

When: Registration runs 8:30-9:30am; games start at 9:45; break at 12:00; two or three rounds follow with awards to be presented around 3:30pm.

Where: Rochester Chess Center, 221 Norris Dr., Rochester (near Cobbs Hill Park).

Entry Fees: $8 by Thursday before event (3/25); $12 same day/onsite.
50% discount for any participants in this year's Interscholastic Chess Leagues.
